

Meeting of the Civil Consultative Body and workshop

The National Preventive Mechanism held a meeting of the Civil Consultative Body, and subsequently a professional discussion of the problems of the statutory background and practices of custody and confinement for an infraction on 16 September 2022.

At the workshop, in addition to the members of the Civil Consultative Body, representatives of external professional bodies also took part as invited participants, along with some colleagues of the OPCAT National Preventive Mechanism and other departments of the Office of the Commissioner for Fundamental Rights concerned by the topic.

