

OPCAT visit

the police custody detention center of the Somogy County Police Department March 01, 2023

On March 01, 2023 the staff members of OPCAT National Preventive Mechanism have been unannounced visit to the police custody detention center of the Somogy County Police Department.

The purpose of the visit was to examine the treatment of the detainees and the conditions of detention, in addition to verifying the implementation of the recommendations that could be drawn from the experience of the CPT visits.

The visiting team members had been access easily to the police custody detention center of the Somogy County Police Department, having interviewed all the people in police custody and some of staff members, and have been inspected the sort of relevant documents.

Every cell and staff room of the police custody detention center had been checked and inspected, plenty of photos have been taken.

The visiting team had been of the following members:

- dr. Sárközy István lawyer
- dr. Kossa Judit lawyer
- dr. Pálfi Nándor lawyer

The National Preventive Mechanism going to prepare a report on the visit.